John 17:20-23

When you hear that Jesus prayed not just for His disciples but also for you (John 17:20), what stands out or surprises you about that?

Jesus says the world will know us by our love. Why do you think love is such a powerful witness? What does loving others through prayer, sacrifice, and grace actually look like in real life?

Unity doesn't mean we're all the same. What gifts or roles do you see in yourself or others that help build up the church? How can differences actually strengthen unity instead of threaten it?

Jesus connects our unity with each other to our unity with God. Why do you think it's impossible to have one without the other? What helps you stay connected to God in a way that overflows into your relationships?
