

real discipleship in a world of artificial everything

September 27, 2026 | The Problem of Distraction

1. “The King has come to dinner.” What distraction (kids, work, worries) is most likely to make you miss Jesus “coming to dinner”.
2. Jesus invited Himself into ordinary life. Jesus was willing to sit at the table and be with people. What does it look like for you to “sit with Jesus” in the middle of your ordinary, busy life?
3. Jesus teaches anyone who is willing to sit and listen. What is Jesus trying to teach you right now?
4. Jesus will answer when we ask. What is a question you have for God right now?
